

Liz Chien

Global Tax Director,
GE Digital

Liz.Chien@ge.com

Background

Liz Chien is the Global Tax Director for GE Digital, GE's software business that is architecting the industrial internet.

Experiences

Prior to her current role, Liz was the Senior International Tax Counsel at GE Digital. Prior to GE, she served as a tax policy advisor at the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), where she worked on international tax reform relating to the digital economy (Action 1 of the BEPS Project) and the inclusive framework. Liz is the former Asia-Pacific Head of Tax for Google and was a Tax Director at Softbank Group International.

Prior to Google, she was an attorney with the global law firm of Baker & McKenzie LLP in Palo Alto, California, where she advised technology companies on IP deferral planning and transfer pricing. Liz received her Bachelors and Masters degrees from Stanford University and her Juris Doctor from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law.